lungs. For such allments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, promptly administered, affords speedy rehaf and cure. As a remedy for Whooping Cough with which many of our children were afflicted we used, during the past winter, with minh satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affection we consider this preparation the most efficacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge—Mary Parkhurst, Proceptress, Home for Lattle Wanderers, Doncastor, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup and 1 failed to and any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayers Cherry Pectoral This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint—David G Starks Chatham, Columbia Co, N. Y.

In conformity with the act of the Leg slature Gov Bodwell has designated this day as Arbor Duy and recommends its general observance. Since the inaugura tion of the plan of setting aside a certain day in the year for the planting of trees the idea has steadily advanced in popularity until now it has become a negular recognized event of the year in a large number of States As an evidence of the practical benefits of the day it is stated of Yebraska 700,000 acres of trees planted ine by the people of that State where the observance of the day originated. The suggestion of the Governor that the teachers of the public schools devote the day to tuitivating in the minds of their pupils a practical knowledge of forestry und a love of the beautiful in nature should receive the thoughtful considerations of the instructors of the young to whom the day can easily be made one of much profit and pleasure. JACOB SHARP'S LUCK

Mr. Kerr's Accident May be his Salvation. NEW YORK, May 9. It is now pretty well understood that only in the event of well understood that only in the event of Mr. Kerr's death will the trial of Jacob Shurp proceed on Wednesday next. If the defense ask for postponement on the ground that Mr. Kerr would be to them probably a material witness, the prosecution will make only a perfunctory opposition, partly because the prosecuting officers know that such an application will be granted by the court and that therefore it would be useless to resist it. The cershot fired on that night. Groves wife testified before the Grand Jury that her father had threated to shoot Groves within a year. He said that if Groves came around again he would shoot him.
